My dear Mrs. Herriman.

I forgot to tell you in my letter the name of the child's book. It is "Teddy Bear and Teddy G. The Roosevelt Bears, Their Trials and Adventures," by Seymour Eaton. — I returned Friday from an eight days visit in Hammondsport. A house party of five sisters, one brother-in-law and one niece at Mrs. Gardiners. Mrs. Sojourner is at her home but not gaining much and we are feeling very anxious about her. We are all well here and at the "other house" and praying for rain. Sincerely - S. A. Rose

STATE CAPITOL, COLUMBIA, S. C.

COLUMBIA, S. C. CAPITOL BUILDING. By an act of the legislature in 1786, the town of Columbia was founded, for the State Capitol, owing to its geographical position in the center of the State. The first wooden building was erected in 1787, and the legislature met in it in 1791. The building was remodeled in 1810, and was destroyed by fire during the occupation of Columbia by Sherman's army in 1864. The present building, from an aesthetic standpoint, one of the most beautiful public buildings in the U. S., was completed in 1902, having been partially built at the time of the destruction of the old building. The effects of Sherman's bombardment are plainly seen on its walls.

Am having a fine time. Weather is great.
Just came in from an automobile

Da bin ich wieder!!!
With you and yours were here. It is the handsomest town of 15000 people I have ever seen. They never rest, and always have a good time. I do hope you may live the life we had a time more of these days.
I could not be bored to death
any time in the large German

Dear Dingleys

I wish you were all here to see the wonderful mountains and lakes. The lovely walks there are all about here and play with the curious little French children who are in the hotel I know you will all love it as much as I do. I wonder what you are all doing & think of you all every day & following
